

Alan Lucchetti is 2x Emmy-Nominated video professional who has made a name as a go-to Director of Photography, Shooter, and Editor for some of the most demanding and iconic brands including:

Disney+, Starz, Vanity Fair, Netflix, Facebook, Paramount Pictures, Dr. Phil, A&E, Iron Chef, ESPN, Disney Channel, FedEx, US Ski Team, Zelle, Nitro Circus, Lifetime, CBS, Delta Airlines, FedEx, BuzzFeed, Comcast, Fox and Friends, CBS Fox News, NBC News, ABC News, and many more.

With a solid track record of over 20 years in the Film and Television industries, Alan's credits range from Photojournalist, Grip, and Gaffer to Editor, Camera, and Director.

His versatility ensures he knows how to make high-stakes projects look great while delivering on time and on budget.

He also has access to proven professional crews who are fully licensed and bonded.

Alan was awarded the winner of the Utah Film Commission "Spot On" contest in 2010 and is a current member of Professional Photographers of America, the Utah Museum of Contemporary Art, and the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences.

Currently based in Salt Lake City, Utah he covers regional, national, and international projects.