

MORGAN TOPHAM

385.207.4404

morgan.topham@gmail.com

Qualifications

- Project Manager for a robotics team for three years. State and International level competitor and winner.
- Peer manager at a boarding school where I lived for a year. Managed house planning, functionality, and conflict resolution.
- Planned and taught weekly classes to youth ages 13-19 themed around leadership, personal development, life skills, etc.
- Future Business Leaders of America: Utah State Finalist Competitor.
- Young Entrepreneurs Academy: competition finalist and award winner for video business start-up.
- Produced videos for numerous clients, including schools, musicians, photographers, businesses, etc. for over five years. Member of LPHS video broadcasting team.
- Editor for local television show “Provo’s Most Eligible.”
- Participated in the Salt Lake City 48 Hour Film Festival, was later interviewed on NPR news radio about my film and experience.
- Skilled with Premiere Pro, Lightroom, Photoshop, Illustrator, and InDesign.

Education

- Graduated from Lone Peak High School.
- Attending Brigham Young University.
- 4.0 GPA

Interests

- SCUBA diving, graphic design, oil painting, piano, and of course, film.