

Robert A. Young

Objective

Security solutions, including; site specific, evaluation, prevention, proactive risk reduction, with customer and employee relations optimized.

Experience

2003 to present Various film production company's Los Angeles, Ca

Motor Officer

- Retired L.A.P.D. Motorcycle officer permitted and inspected by active duty supervisors, for enforcement and compliance of city codes at permitted film locations, for movies, commercials, citizen protection, and compliance of vehicular and pedestrian safety.
- Working side by side with producers, directors, and actors, to create ideas into reality. Also analyzing liabilities and consequences of carrying out the ideas.
- Supervisor and co-ordinate teams of officers to safely film on the streets of L.A. including stunts, collisions, fires, explosions, shootings, helicopters, and boats in the harbor division.

1990 to present Independent Licensed Security Contractor State of California

Bodyguard, Driver, Security

- Personal protection of high profile individuals, and design security system for residences, etc.
- Investigate work place violence, do surveillance, take photos and videos of suspects, report, and file evidence.

1990 to 1999 Independent Fraud Contractor United States

Consultant for American Express Fraud Prevention Unit

- Train retail industry, corporate and associate levels, on point of sale, internet, electronic and mail-order credit card fraud prevention, including U. S. Treasury in Washington D. C. Train active and retired police in numerous states for American Express Fraud Unit. Create and host training videos for future use.

Education

College Cal State Northridge Northridge, California

A.A. Degree

- Physical education major, 91 units completed

References

1968/1990 employed as LAPD officer; References are available on request.