Hotel Story

Moab has always been a place where characters from around the region gathered if you wanted to cross the river, you had few other choices. And over the years, as this place has evolved from homestead to mining town to off-the-radar recreation mecca, it has remained a hub of the activity that goes on in the surrounding desert. We continue that tradition, giving a home to those in search of a transformative experience, while redefining the heart of Moab like the sparkle in the dust that coats your boots, a sometimes surprising mix of people, places, and qualities that no other destination will ever approximate.

The HooDoo is first and only full service hotel in Moab, Utah. We are a source of rejuvenation, relaxation, and exploration at the heart of Moab. We are basecamp for exploration, we provide legitimate luxury without pretense, and we a unique world experience for a unique of traveler.
