ABOUT ME

Creative professional with a proven track record in all aspects of the end-to-end creative process, ranging from concept to execution. Excellent team player and collaborator with a cinematic eye and a passion for storytelling. Looking to grow with a company by creating new and engaging content while enriching and challenging my abilities.

EXPERIENCE

Proud Panda Video/Making Magic Productions

Director/Producer/Videographer

Freelance video production for various platforms such as business marketing videos, interviews, short films, music videos and highlight videos. Managing everything from initial concept down to the final product. Also have experience working on several professional film sets in a crew capacity.

Stolen Innocence Documentary

Cinematographer & Sound mixer

Worked on the documentary Stolen Innocence. Spent 3 months in India as a cinematographer as well as a sound mixer. Ran B-camera for interviews, captured various b-roll footage for each interview location, and was the sound mixer for all of the interviews while in India.
