

Melissa Tinambacan

meltinambacan@gmail.com

(806) 316-8906

meltinambacan.com

Experience

Photography Assistant – BYU Brand & Creative | Provo, UT

April 2023 - Present

- Assist with lighting both in studio and on location
- Catalog and archive photos in Lightroom
- Prepare images for print and digital publication
- Photograph for BYU Magazines, websites and departments
- Second camera operator and colorist for BYU Speeches and Y Magazine videos

Videographer – BYU Multicultural Student Services | Provo, UT

July 2022-April 2023

- Filmed event coverage and edited social content with quick turnaround
- Created promotional videos for cultural events from conceptualization to post-production

Content Creator Intern – Serenity Mental Health Centers | Lehi, UT

January 2022-April 2022

- Edited patient testimonial videos from existing footage
- Created an informational video to be shown in clinics across several states

Film Work

Untitled Harm Reduction Project – Director Short Documentary

- In development
- Supported by grant from NBCU Original Voices
- Selected for Utah Film Center Pitch Competition 2024

Votes for Verona (2024) – Cinematographer Short Documentary

- Asian American Documentary Network 2024 micro short series

Women's Work (2024) – Cinematographer Short Documentary
• BYU Advanced Film Production

Do You See Me? (2023) – Assistant Editor Short Documentary
• BYU Advanced Film Production
• Official Selection DOCNYC 2023

Education

BA Media Arts Studies – Brigham Young University | Provo, UT
2019-2024

Skills

- Premiere Pro
- Photoshop
- Lightroom
- Illustrator
- Microsoft Suite
- Avid Media Composer
- Photography (digital & analog)
- Cinematography

Grants & Awards

NBCU Original Voices Accelerator – Fellowship
BYU Theater & Media Arts Talent Award

Professional Affiliations

Melissa is an active member of the Asian American Documentary Network, Brown Girls Doc Mafia, and the Video Consortium