I was provided with a group of people to direct them to a location and set up food before a specific time. I was trained in perfecting the craft and presenting myself and my team with quality.

I learned the products to provide the best service for the customers. I guide customers towards their desired needs and help them better understand their purchases.

I am savvy at adobe products and have had experience with marketing products and business. I also am great with directing people and getting items ready for the intended time.

I have been in management positions for a long time, and I direct movies in my spare time. Leadership positions are perfect for me. I am willing to take on any role and present the best of the company and my work.
