

Mary Catrow
1209 south 700 east
SLC, UT
206 476 4578
mcatrowproductions@gmail.com

Passionate storyteller with over thirteen years experience using film as a medium. Trusted videographer, editor and documentarian recognized for creating numerous human-rights pieces for the communities of New York City and Salt Lake City. Previous works range from non-profit organizations and music videos and personal interest ventures. Intensely devoted to documenting peoples stories in authentic way, edits with a keen understanding of direction. Efficiency in Adobe Premiere allows for quick turnaround pieces with effective visual storytelling. Personal style crates a dynamic, visual experience that engages and evokes emotion from the viewer. While living in and traveling to various locations both in the US and abroad, life experiences and college education shape the creative aesthetic.

The Madeleine Choir School

Salt Lake, UT
December 2017-current
Camera operator and Editor
Short documentary pieces to be used for promotional purposes

Rock n' Roll Camp for Girls

Salt Lake, UT
July 2016-current
Short documentary pieces to be used for promotional purposes

SLUG Magazine

Salt Lake, UT
April 2010-March 2013
-Filmed performances, conducted interviews with musicians, edited videos for website

Craft Lake City

Salt Lake, UT
October 2010-December 2012
-Shot and edited short videos of artist profiles, workshop events including an interview with the featured artist
-Shot and edited highlight reels of festival

Econosis

Salt Lake, UT
Febuary 2009-April 2009
-Editor
Short narrative film directed by Troy Williams

Jibsaw Media

New York, New York
Director of photography, assistant editor and assistant producer
March 2008-current
Little Brooklyn

Rainlake Productions

New York, NY
March 2003-May 2008
Camera operator and assistant editor
Crossing Arizona- official selection, Sundance Film Festival
Follow My Voice the Music of Hedwig- official selection, Tribeca Film Festival
The Empire State Pride Agenda annual videos (3 years)
Various videos on human rights based issues.

Personal Projects

Maria a short piece about a woman from Guatemala who is being threatened deportation.
The Gayest Bake Sale Ever: A short piece highlighting a protest
A Different Kind of Revolution /Homo a Go Go: A 10 minute piece about a week long music and art festival which took place in Olympia, WA.
Various videos for local musicians, artists and activists

Education

Hunter College/CUNY Baccalaureate Program
New York, NY
Graduated June, 2004
BA- Urban and Ethnic Studies
Various film production and documentary film production course